Deposits and early payments

1. Deposits

Students are required to pay a non-refundable tuition fee deposit of £1,800 for 2021 entry and £2,000 for 2022 entry. The deposit shall be paid before an electronic Confirmation of Acceptance for Studies (CAS) can be issued, including students who are awarded scholarship. A CAS is an essential document for students applying for a student visa. The deposit payment is deducted from the total cost of your tuition fees. For students with full scholarships, the paid deposit shall be refunded when students complete their first academic year studies.

It is possible to pay more than £2,000; up to a maximum of the total tuition fee due for the year. The total amount paid will be displayed on your invoice and will be deducted from the tuition fee due.

Deposits are non-refundable except in cases where a Student visa has been refused. In such circumstances you must email a scanned copy of the refusal letter, along with your full name and student ID number to the studentsupport@pku.org.uk

Late payment

In the event that a deposit or tuition is not paid on the agreed payment date, a late payment charge of £25 per day will be added to the student's account and the student will be advised by an email sent to their email address, unless the delay in payment is agreed with PHBS UK. In the event that a student is unable to meet the deadlines for the payment of their fees they must contact Finance Office (finance@pku.org.uk), where appropriate, alternative payment arrangements can be discussed and agreed.

Non-payment

Where a tuition fee payment remains outstanding beyond the published due date, an indicator will be applied to the student record. At the point at which the indicator is applied, the student will be sent an email to notify them and explain the consequences for them with respect to graduation or re-registration.
